DESIGN WITH

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember that peace may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and angry persons; their vibrations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Know your own strengths as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Activities

"...Be yourself. Strive to be happy..."

Orientation Activities

Wednesday, September 5, 1973...a massive traffic jam, reportedly due to an influx of new and returning students, occurred behind the chapel at Mount St. Mary's College. Suitcases, boxes, and clothes were strewn along the walkway leading to the dorms. In a short while, the students had transformed empty rooms into chaotic quarters. Newcomers were met by their Big Sisters.

On the second day of Orientation, the new students were entertained at a sit-down dinner by their Big Sisters.

Friday, September 7th, freshman had all-day sessions with their academic advisors. The day ended with a barbecue in the Circle, complete with sophomore sound and song.

Chairman of all Orientation activities was Margaret Antczak.

One of the more novel events of orientation was a "faculty" scavenger hunt held Friday evening. The freshman journeyed all over campus finding answers, and in some cases, questions. A party for all who participated was held in the Rumpus Room. The next morning, students toured the Doheny campus and were treated to lunch. Evening events included a mixture of activities. Sister Rose Adrian was presented with some "gifts" for her feast-day, including fuzzy yellow slippers and a school bell. The movie "Trouble with Angels" and a Survival Kit Party followed.

Registration was an integral part of Orientation activities. There was much commotion in the Campus Center as new and returning students patiently waited to register.

This year's events also included a rebirth of Frosh Frolics. The freshman class entertained residents with some delightful skits. A highlight of the evening was the sharing of songs from another culture presented by the students from Hawaii.

All-College Picnic

The residence sponsored All-College Picnic was held on October 3 at Crestwood Park. Members of the staff, faculty, day-hops, and residents joined together for an enjoyable time. Many picnickers participated in a foot-ball game highlighted by the antics of Nancy Manning's children. Other activities of the afternoon included volleyball and frisbee.

4. Students enjoying the food and each other's company.

2. Sister Michele Therese enjoying the picnic with her parents.

Sophomore Social Night

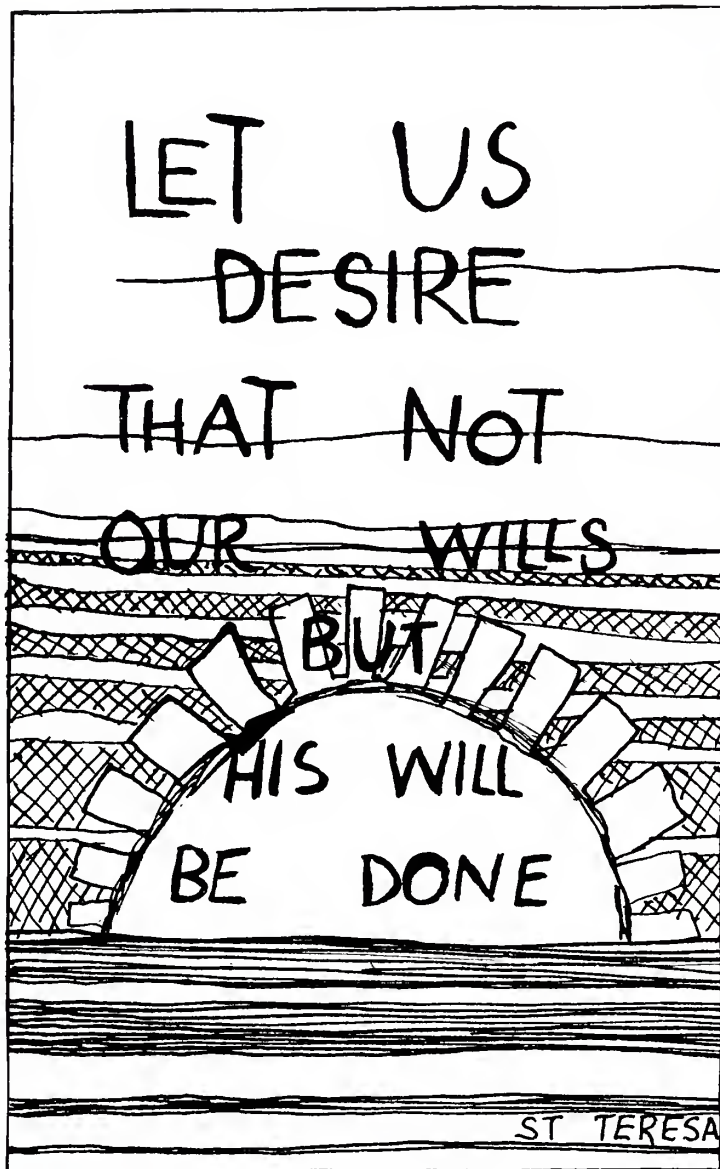

The sophomore class treated students and faculty to a ghoulish evening on September 26. Costumed to fit the mood, the sophomores served a delectable menu and presented a bewitching entertainment.

1. Sister Mary Frederick boogies with Louisa. 2. Mrs. Fleming rocks out. 3. Ata and Sister Rose Bernard do the Moster Mash. 4. Frosh enjoy social night activities.

Founder's Day 1973

October 15, 1973, marked the 48th anniversary of the founding of Mount St. Mary's College. The day began with the celebration of Mass in Mary Chapel by Reverend Ernest Larkin. Following the Mass, Father Larkin spoke on "St. Teresa and Women's Liberation". Four women faculty members reacted to his comments on St. Teresa. After the presentation, the college community enjoyed a buffet lunch served with the help of Pi Theta Mu members.

Mark Twain Tonight

Stepping out of the 1800's into 1973, Mark Twain paid a visit to Mount St. Mary's College on November 7. Mr. Reuben Gordon presented an enthusiastic audience with a detailed, realistic portrayal of Mr. Twain. He shared his writings, a bit of his past, and much of his humor. The performance was arranged by the Cultural-Academic Committee.

Freshmen Social Night

Remember Bee Bop Inn? On Nov. 14th the freshman class took residents on a trip back into the 1950's. Their social night menu included double decker hamburgers, French fries, onion rings, malts, and candy apples. Sha-Na-Na (alias, Freshman Incorporated) provided entertainment in the malt shop. Highlights of the evening were bubble gum blowing and limbo contests.

Christmas Concert

The Consort Singers, Mount Chorus, and Loyola Men's Chorus performed in concert on December 7. Paul Salamunovich directed the program in the House of Studies Chapel. A full house audience was treated to old and new Christmas music and a beautiful Mass by Durufle. A reception for all who attended the concert followed in the Campus Center.

Christmas Party

The Sisters on campus treated the students to a cider and doughnut party before the Christmas Midnight Mass on December 10. The dining room was decorated in true Christmas spirit and the Sisters served the many students who came. Both students and Sisters joined the impromptu caroling. A highlight of the evening was Sister Mary's mulled cider.

Midnight Mass

An all-college Midnight Mass was held on December 10. Students from each floor lit candles for everyone in a ceremony before Mass. Faculty and students processed inside carrying their candles and singing carols. Father Kidney was the celebrant of this special liturgy. Students from Residence took up Offertory gifts made by representatives on their floors. Julie Atkinson was chairman of the Committee.

Exchangites

The Mount's first Interterm brought exchange students from as far east as New York and as near as Southern California to our sometimes sunny hill. The schools represented included St. Rose in Albany, New York; St. Catherine's in St. Paul, Minnesota; Cal-Lutheran in Thousand Oaks; the University of Redlands; Our Lady of Peace High School in San Diego.

It's a Family Affair

The weekend of January 11-12, began Interterm activities with a Father-Daughter dinner and Mother-Daughter fashion show. On Friday night many fathers joined their daughters, both real and "adopted", for a spaghetti dinner in the dining room.

Four father-daughter teams volunteered for the Mount's very own version of the Newlywed Game. The contestants revealed many interesting facts to the audience. The girls serenaded their fathers with well-known hits (with original lyrics by Judy Fitzpatrick).

Saturday afternoon, the mothers joined their daughters for a Mass. A fashion show followed in the Campus Center. The fashions were all originals from Lanz in Westwood. Mount students modeled stylish clothes while Julie Atkinson narrated.

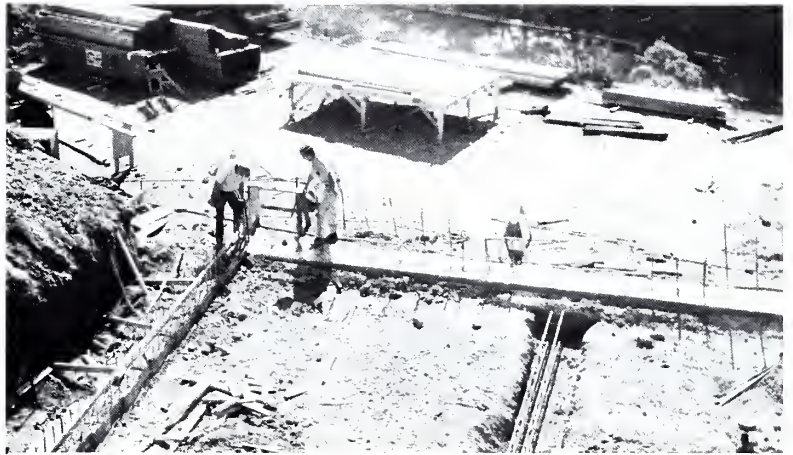

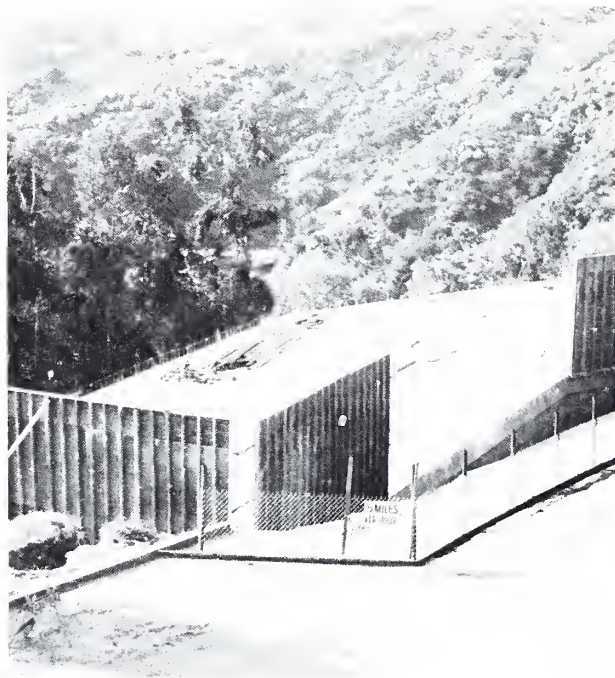

Fleur de Lis Ball

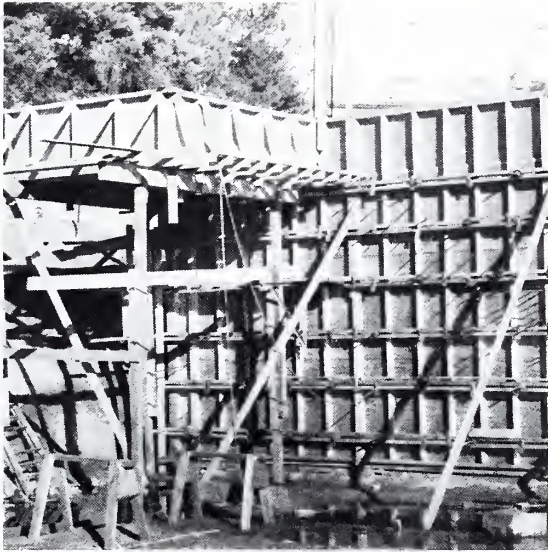

The annual Fleur de Lis Ball was held November 3, 1973, in the Penthouse of the International Hotel. The evening's activities included dinner and dancing with music provided by the Vince McGraw Ensemble. Julie Atkinson was chairman of this event.

Go placidly amid the noise and haste,
and remember what peace there may be in silence...

The production of a yearbook is not a simple task. It involves many long hours of planning, organizing, executing, and then re-planning around people's timely talents. It is not just a matter of having all those concerned sitting around a table for a "tea party". It is more than that. It is setting up a meeting time, contacting people, and then hoping they find time to come and work. But surely enough, the same dedicated few show up; the work does get done; deadlines are not "missed"--just late. This yearbook would not be what it is if it were not for the "concerned" staff.

A yearbook is not merely a book of pictures and words. It is a record of time and what we did or did not do with that time. It is a part of us and all of us and in a sense, it may indicate what we may become. We have the ability to determine our future; the future of this book depends upon the college community. What will the future hold for you, for us?

My most sincere thanks go to our advisor, Sister Rose Adrian, for all her support, for her unfailing confidence in us, and for her re-organization of my filing system. A very special thank you goes to Susie Durando and Debby Cunningham for constantly giving of themselves to get us to this point. And, of course, thanks to each and every person who contributed in anyway, big or small, to the production of this book.

Mitch

Michele Rhilinger
